A READING COMMUNITY · PUNE, INDIA · SINCE 2024

About 250 of us read under a tree every Sunday, 8–10 in the morning, somewhere in Pune. No fee, no RSVP, no discussion of the book. It's been happening every Sunday since early 2024. Penguin, Audible and Socials have spent Sundays with us.

What working with us looks like

- You bring something that belongs on a Sunday — a thing readers are quietly glad to find on the grass.
- We won't charge readers, brand the tree, capture emails, or manufacture moments. Ever.
- A defined portion of every partnership funds public libraries and reading work in Pune.
